For the past few days considerable new maple syrup has been coming to Honesdale and can be purchased at the several markets in town. It is pure, according to the law.

Several Justices of the Peace have written us asking for Judge Searle's decision on surety of the peace cases. We will gladly furnish this paper to any who will send us their address on a postal card.

Owen D. Jones, prominent in business and ex-city treasurer, died Wednesday morning from injuries sustained by a fall down an elevator shaft over a year ago, when his spine was shattered. He was 61 years of age.

The newly repaired steam fire engine was tested on Friday afternoon, under steam pressure, in order to ascertain the result of the repairs lately made by the American La France Fire Engine Co. The test was very satisfactory.

W. H. Brunig purchased at Sheriff's sale what is known as the Rieffer farm in Oregon. It consists of 38 acres; price paid was $1,285.95. Charles Arthur purchased at the same sale the Frank D. Goodnough farm adjoining above for $950.

There is quite a boom in real estate, a number of properties having changed hands lately, and there are a number of houses to be erected this coming spring. The sound of the hammer and the saw is music that delights the ear of the wage earner.

William G. Faatz, who was born in Honesdale, has been elected President of a $2,000,000 combination which has been organized to manufacture felt goods. Mr. Faatz is one of Lestershire's most prominent business men. A little encouragement on the part of Honesdale people and this immense concern would have located here.

Mrs. Catherine Tompkins, of Honesdale, has been granted a pension of $12 a month. Her husband served as a private in Co. E, 156th N. Y. Volunteers, and died in Carbondale Sept. 15, 1909, with interment in Honesdale. The family were for a long period residents of Honesdale. Mr. Tompkins, while he lived here, was employed by the Del. and Hud. as engineer of the steam shovel on the coal docks.

At a business meeting of the Business Men's Association held last week the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, S. T. Ham; vice-president, J. B. Nielson; treasurer, N. B. Spencer. Committees were also elected as follows: Membership, L. B. Swingle, F. W. Schuerholz, Fred Lawyer, John Erk, Charles Herrman, H. T. Menner, Edward Deltzer, and W. L. Herrman. The following board of directors were elected: Harry Rettew and W. H. Krietner.

Some enterprising chap might make a little money during the spring months by establishing a brokers' office for the sale of second hand household goods. When people move or clean house they find a lot of stuff that is too good to throw away, but for which they have no use. The broker could take these things, store them until he had enough for a sale, then auction them off, returning to the owners what they sell for, less a profitable commission. Or, the broker could buy the stuff outright, depending upon luck or sagacity to get enough to make him good. Such a method would solve the problem of making useless stuff useful, and be satisfactory all the way round.

Drs. Simons and Gilpin were attending court this week as witnesses.

The Governor has fixed April 14th as the date for the execution of Shendore Fenez of Scranton.

Fred Krietner's garage is nearing completion, and will soon be ready to house his new automobile.

A gentleman whose business calls him to the different court houses in this state, while looking over the men comprising the present panel of jurors, stated that in point of intelligence Wayne county was ahead of any county in this state, if the present panel is a sample of our average juries.

The Judges of the Lackawanna court, refused to grant any new licenses with the exception of two, and refused to renew any of the old licenses where there was a remonstrance. The two new licenses were considered cases of necessity, one being the new hotel in Scranton, the Casey Grand.

One of our farmers went into his cow stable the other night and by mistake mixed her up with a nice mash in a box full of sawdust instead of bran. The cow merely supposing that the hard times had come and they were all going to economize, meekly ate her supper and the man never discovered his mistake until the next morning when he milked the cow and she let down a half a gallon of turpentine, a quart of shoe pegs and a bundle of lath.

A dispatch from Susquehanna says: As a result of a recent visit of a state inspector of schools, it is said that five High schools in Susquehanna county are to lose the annual appropriations made by the State each year. The course is said to be that the directors so graded the schools that they did not come up to the standard demanded by the state to receive the commonwealth's aid for maintaining High schools. Among the schools to be dropped are the Oakland and Lanesboro schools.

The formation of a tip-top base ball team is being agitated in Honesdale, and we trust that it will result in the getting together of a combination of players that will uphold the reputation of Honesdale as a base ball town. Wm. Kupper, who played third base several seasons, is one of those who is trying to stir up an interest. It is intended to give a dance after Easter and from the proceeds of same form the nucleus for a fund with which to start the season. Everybody ought to buy tickets whether they dance or not, in order to help along the movement.

The Bell Telephone company at Scranton, very benevolently sends us an abstract from their annual report which would fill about half a page of our paper, with a request that we print it for the edification of our readers. Corporations are said to have no souls, but this one has a double quantity of unmitigated nerve. Were we to repeat this report over the wires of the Bell company at a pay station they would charge us at least five dollars, and yet they request us to print the same report gratuitously. Why not "Hello" it over your wires to those who want to hear it?

She was on her way to visit another sister, Mrs. Susan Budd, at Peckville, Pa., whom it is feared, will shortly be totally blind. Mrs. Budd will consult a New York specialist this week.

OBITUARY.

A D A M S—George W. Adams died at his home in Dybbury township, on Saturday, after a long illness. He was nearly seventy-five years of age. He was a sawyer by trade, a most excellent workman, and very much respected by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and one son, namely, Mrs. Wm. F. Rieffer, and Mrs. L. L. Barclay, of Tanners Falls, and Henry W. Adams, of Jamaica, N. Y. Funeral was held on Monday.

C A R T E R—Charles J. Carter died of diabetes on Sunday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cecil Fredericks, on Seventh street. Mr. Carter and wife came from Middletown to visit their daughter, and was taken ill and died. He was 72 years of age, and was a farmer. Short services were held at the home of Mrs. Fredericks on Monday evening, by Rev. Mr. Hiller, and the body was taken to Middletown on the Tuesday morning Erie train for interment.

T Y L E R—On Friday afternoon Mrs. Hester Tyler, of Damascus, passed away while at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Bush, on Sixteenth street, Honesdale. She had just returned from Harryville where she had gone in company with her sister, Mrs. Bush, to attend the funeral of her brother, Truman L. Suthiff. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. James Bush, and Mrs. Lydia Tyler, and also a brother. Funeral services took place on Sunday, Rev. Wm. Hiller officiating. Remains were taken to Damascus on the Monday morning Erie train.

M I N C K L E R—Abraham B. Minckler, aged 39 years, a life long resident of Kellam, was found dead at his home Tuesday morning, Mar. 8, 1910. He had stomach trouble and had been in poor health for some time. On Monday he was able to attend to his chores and went upstairs to bed as usual, but the next morning was found by his aged mother on the floor, by an open window, dead. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Clara Minckler; two sisters, Mrs. John Price, and Mrs. Fred Sodawater, of Braman, and two brothers, James and Sanford. The funeral was held Thursday at the Union church, Rev. Gardner, of Equinunk, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. S. Empleton, of Lookout. The text was taken from Eccl. 12: 13—"Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter; fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man."

A L L D U E TO THE ROBBER TARIFF "NIT."

Under the Dingley tariff the duty on ham and bacon was 5 cents a pound, under the present law 4 cents; fresh meats under the old law 2 cents, under the present one 1 1/2 cents; the duty on live stock is the same, yet the price of all kinds of meat has gone up several times more than the tariff. Under the old law there was a duty of 15 per cent on raw hides; now they are free. The duty on boots and shoes and leather goods was materially reduced, but the price of boots and shoes of all leather goods has been raised 25 per cent. The tariff on wood pulp was materially reduced, yet paper is higher; you must even pay more for a Bible. Hundreds of articles on the free list have been advanced as much or more than others. In other nations prices have advanced the same as here, in Free Trade England and Protected Germany. And yet we are told that all this is due to the "robber tariff."

South Africans Fond of Oatmeal. South Africans are distinctly an oatmeal-eating people, over $300,000 worth of this American breakfast food being imported annually into South Africa.

Soldiers Sleep on Paper Mattresses. Mattresses filled with paper are used by German soldiers.

The One Exception. Everything comes to him who waits—except the waiter.—Judge.

There are three brothers and three sisters of the Budd family who came from Cornwall, England, over fifty years ago and are living to-day. There is still one brother, Thomas Budd, living at Bridgerule, England. Two brothers have passed the three score and ten year mark while the others are crowding the seventy year mark.

CAUTIONS LIQUOR LICENSEES.

Judge Searle Gave a Few Words of Advice to the Liquor Men Monday.

In connection with the disposition to be made of the applications for liquor licenses for the coming year, Judge Searle, on Monday afternoon, made the following announcement:

Upon the granting of licenses in this court on March 9, 1908, Judge Purdy made the following remarks: "You ought to close your places of business from twelve o'clock, midnight, until six a. m. Eighteen hours' work each day ought to be enough for you. There seems to be no good reason why bars should not be closed during those hours. In other places it is done, and hereafter, if the evidence is brought to court that licensed places are kept open after midnight and the proprietors sell intoxicants, the court will consider an application to revoke such license or will refuse to grant the place a license the next year. It is to be hoped that all will keep within the law and endeavor to have others do the same. It is the duty of those interested with the law, if they know of any wrongdoing, to report same and put a stop to illegal traffic."

This salutary rule was continued last year.

We believe the rule therein laid down by his Honor was wise and reasonable, and we shall follow that precedent. We now again state that there must be no intoxicating liquors sold or given away in any licensed place in Wayne county, between the hours of twelve o'clock, midnight, and six o'clock in the morning, and the violation of this rule, upon due cause shown, will be considered ground for revoking the license, and, upon proper remonstrance being made, a sufficient reason to refuse the applicant another year, and all licenses are granted upon the condition and expectation that all the laws regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors will be complied with.

That none may be misled, we snail direct that these remarks be filed with the Clerk of Quarter Sessions of Wayne county.
